

GDPR and Recent State Data Privacy Legislation: What the Non-Specialist Needs to Know

2018 has marked a year of expansive changes in the realm of electronic data and eCommerce and their impact on intellectual property. For example, global data privacy regulations (GDPR) went into effect impacting many U.S.-based companies. States are implementing their own GDPR laws, which will affect many U.S. businesses. Federal laws were passed regarding the seizure of data both domestically and overseas.

2018 eCommerce and Intellectual Property Law Seminar
11.30.2018
Event Sponsor: Iowa State Bar Association

2018 has marked a year of expansive changes in the realm of electronic data and eCommerce and their impact on intellectual property. For example, global data privacy regulations (GDPR) went into effect impacting many U.S.-based companies. States are implementing their own GDPR laws, which will affect many U.S. businesses. Federal laws were passed regarding the seizure of data both domestically and overseas.

ATTORNEYS

Roberta L. Christensen
Maureen E. Fulton

PRACTICE AREAS

Data Privacy and Security
Intellectual Property