

Client Resources, Inc.

“I value the depth of the relationships I have with my attorneys at Koley Jessen. They’ve been the right partners with the right experience to help us remove barriers quickly and grow our business over time. I trust that they understand what we’re trying to do because they’ve always made the effort to learn about our business.” - Sue Thaden, President/CEO, Client Resources, Inc.

Sue Thaden founded CRi in 1999 has grown the company to a team of 180+ employees since then. Koley Jessen has worked with Sue on both the business and personal front. As a business owner we were able to provide her advice as she worked to grow her business and remove hurdles she faced along the way. On a personal front, she had a need to protect her assets for the next generation and our team has worked with her to ensure that her estate plan meets her goals and objectives for the future.

Incorporated in 1999, CRi is a certified woman-owned Nebraska-based corporation that has received several awards for its growth, quality of service and excellence in business. CRi is recognized locally, regionally and throughout the US as one of the industry leaders in providing Information Technology services and solutions.
