

Koley Jessen Adds to Health Law Practice

01.07.2018

Joseph Huigens has joined Koley Jessen's Health Law Practice. Joe brings a wealth of legal and business judgment drawn from his experiences working for the world's largest multinational retailer, a premier international corporate law firm, the world's largest defense company, and as a legal intern in the criminal division of a U.S. Attorney's Office.

"Joe's experience with complex regulatory compliance and litigation related to federal and state fraud and abuse laws is a great asset to our team" says Rick Vroman, Health Law Practice Chair. "His addition will provide depth to our experienced Health Law team, allowing us to continue to provide exemplary service to our current health care industry clients and continue to expand our work throughout the industry."

Joe received his B.S. in Electrical Engineering from Purdue University (with distinction) and his J.D. from the University of Notre Dame (summa cum laude).

The Koley Jessen Health Law team's expertise ranges from representing regional healthcare professionals, hospitals, surgery centers and other healthcare facilities, to advising national and international healthcare industry leaders on complex business and regulatory compliance matters. The Health Law team stays connected and attuned to the needs of their clients' businesses and the developments within the health care industry to ensure advice is responsive, practical, and proactive.
