

Firm Leadership

Koley Jessen's Executive Committee consists of five shareholders who are charged with firm management decisions and report to all shareholders. We also have several other committees, such as Finance and Facilities, Recruiting, Strategy, and Risk Management. Not only do shareholders have the opportunity to become involved, associates and firm administrative staff also provide valued contributions on various committees.