Jessica focuses her practice on assisting domestic and international companies and their employees with employment-based immigration matters. Her experience includes securing nonimmigrant and immigrant visas, advising employers and employees on immigration benefits and obligations, Federal I-9 and E-Verify compliance, U.S. Department of Labor audits, and U.S. Department of Homeland Security inspections. She is skilled at understanding business needs and solving immigration-related challenges.

Before joining Koley Jessen, Jessica gained professional experience both in private practice and as in-house counsel, with a focus on employment and immigration law.
